Elk County Wayfinding Map

Elk County is home to nearly 1,400 elk and seeing them in the wild is an incredible experience. The town of Benezette is the "Elk Capital of Pennsylvania" and home to the KECA's Elk Country Visitor Center on Winslow Hill. This beautiful education and conservation center has interactive displays, presentations, wild elk viewing blinds, and specially planted grazing pastures to attract wildlife.

Ridgway's Lily of the Valley National Register Historic District features beautiful Victorian homes and mansions along Millionaire's Row. The town is also close to the Allegheny National Forest, and it hosts wildly popular events each year like Mountain Fest, Chainsaw Carvers Rendezvous, and Tasting in the Wilds.

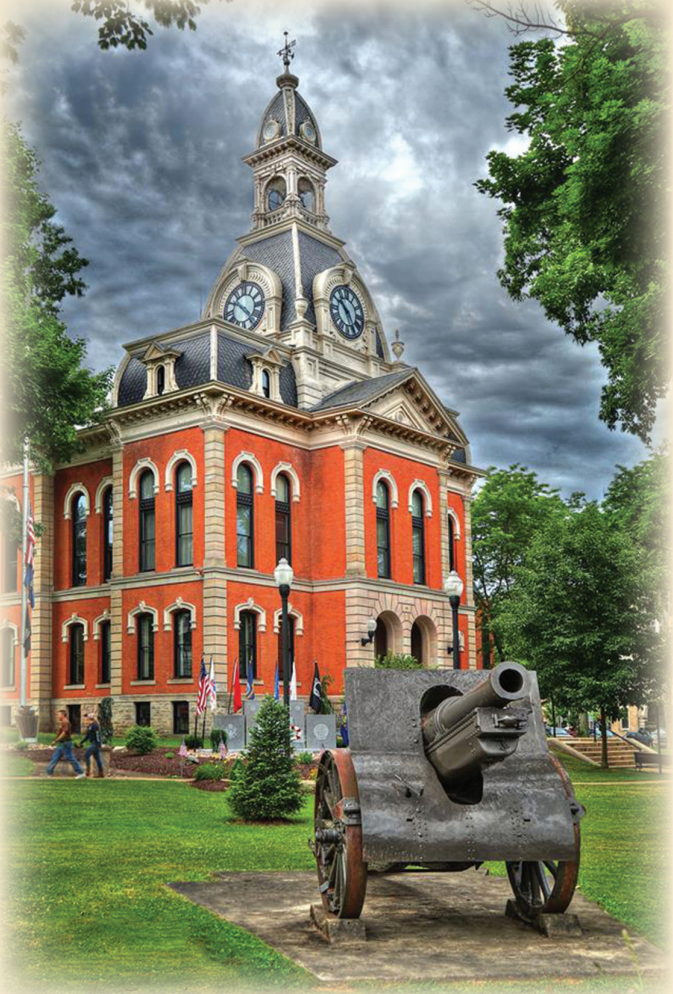

In St. Marys, the town's strong German Catholic heritage greets you at every turn. Since 1872, the Straub family has been brewing downtown at Straub Brewery, recognized as an American Legacy Brewery. Stop for a sample from the Eternal Tap and enjoy a meal at the Tap Room and Visitor Center. The lively downtown and Million Dollar Highway offer visitors the perfect place to spend a few hours browsing unique shops and restaurants.
